Save the proof of payment generated in either way to submit it via email, along with the above table filled out with the required information.

Registration Type

Choose regular registration (type R) if you have an oral or poster presentation at the scientific sessions, or if you simply want to attend the conference. If you plan to attend the rheology course as well, choose regular/rheology course registration (type RRC).

Choose student registration (type S) if you are a student or a PhD candidate (and you do not wish to attend the rheology course). If you are a student and want to attend the rheology course too, choose student/rheology course (type SRC) registration.

The fees for the rheology course are waived. Participants that have already registered for the short course and included the relevant fee in their payment, will be reimbursed accordingly.

Choose accompanying person registration (type AP) if you want to attend the social program and all/some of the activities of the conference except for the scientific sessions and the coffee breaks during the scientific sessions. If you are an accompanying person, and you want to attend the rheology course, choose accompanying person / rheology course registration (type APRC).
